

Presented By Brainstorm Henry, a Forum to Affect Positive Change in our Community

July 24th
5 to 9 pm

Delight Your Senses at an Evening of Fine Art, Music and Food

Tour Begins at 136 Hood Street

As you stroll from venue to venue at this progressive-style event, you'll enjoy delicious hors d'oeuvres, live music, and fantastic visual and performance art, all by local talent.

"The Warehouse," 136 Hood Street
Andy Davis' Gallery, 261 Griffin Street

Windsor Gallery, 34 Macon Street
G Gallery on display at 49 Macon Street

Stop in at each of the above venues to get your ticket punched to become eligible to win one of these fabulous door prizes!

An original work by Mia Broder
An autographed print by Julie Harnage
A custom frame job by G Gallery

An autographed print by Kawai Laurencin
A Death By Chocolate Cake by MasLeon Cakes & Pastries

Bottled water, shuttles and adult beverages will be available for this private, non-exclusive event.

Singles $8 / Couples $12

*Childcare provided by McDonough's First United Methodist Church
All proceeds to go to Henry County Arts Alliance Arts Camp*

Sponsored By

Henry Daily Herald
HENRY COUNTY'S NEWS SOURCE SINCE 1874

For more information, go to www.facebook.com/brainstormhenry